Alpha Gamma Delta Legacy Policy

- A legacy is a woman in a family relationship such as a daughter, sister or granddaughter to an AΓΔ member in Good Standing.
 - A legacy must be a qualified potential new member in her own right as well as be compatible with the chapter. A chapter is not required to offer a bid to a legacy.
 - A legacy who falls below the carry line will only be extended a courtesy invite back to the first invitational round of events if she has a Recommendation from a member in Good Standing
 - Alpha Gamma Delta chapters are not to call a potential new member's legacy connection upon her release nor are chapters to
- provide information about the status of a legacy or any other potential new member during recruitment.* The Fraternity respects every potential new member's right to make her own decision and to choose how and when she informs her family and friends. While Alpha Gamma Delta recognizes the value of the legacy relationship, the Fraternity also respects potential new member privacy and each chapter's confidentiality during the Membership Selection process.
- If a legacy attends Preference or a final function, she must be placed at the top of the chapter's bid list.
